The Ten Tribes.

A German traviller, Herr Otto Reventlow. has started a new theory of the whereabouts of the lost ten tribes. His notion is that the Nor, h American Indians are determed ants of the sabjects of King Jeroboam. This theory is stated in a work called "American Sketches," and the substance of it is given in a recent number of the Jewish Allgemeine Zeitung, from which we extract the following :-Herr Roventl w's theory is based on a passage in the 21 Book of Ez:a-a book of the Apecianha-but the accounts of which have been referred to both by Josephus and by several of the early fathers, such as Terrullian, Clemens of Alexandria, &s. The passage is as follows: 'Yander theu seest another percaful multitude : they are the ten tribes which were taken from this land into captivity in the time of Hoshea, whom Shalman-ser, king of Ass; ria, curried away a captive. He took them across the waters, and they come to another land. And they took conesel with each other, and r .solved to go to a distant land, where men had never dw.it, so that they might hold fast to ply to war, which took them one year and a half."

According to the account in the same book, he number of those who thus left Media and Assyria was somewhere about 200 000. They seem to have travelled from the Euphrates to Behricg Straits, resched the continent of Ner.h and, therefire, those whom we have hitherto been accustomed to regard as the aborigines of the New Cortinent, are wholly or partly the d .. condents of the less tribes. The facts by which, according to Herr Revent ow this theory is supported are as follows: The Am nieso Indians b lieve, like the Jews, in one God, whom they call the Great Spirit. They bave fee ivals which correspond chronologically to the Jewish Easter, the Day of Atonement, and the Feast of Tab resoles. They build alters, and are divided into tribes, each of which has a Grand Sachem at its head. Ther, again, their lews respecting ablu ims, escrifices, and marriages are similar to those of the J.ws, and so doss their language resemble Hebrew. In many other respects, also, there is a similarity batween the ideas and customs of both nations. The Indians worship Loc-ack I-htaboola- Abbe. which means the highest beneficient souit of tire-a werd apparent'y made up of Hebrew words. Acc rling to the same tuther, there are still races of Red Indians in the reservations of the Western States of Nor h America which have aberoccles like the one the Isralites had in the Daser:. On the occasion of their barrest festival, they sing of "Meshya", the Mersiah of the Jews, and on certain other occasions they chant hynns to Elso, which is the E (God) of the H brews, They propoures, like the Jaws bered clion over the moon, called Circat halabanah, and their prayers generally are very similar to those usual in Israel. An Indian hunteman, on leaving his wiewam to go bunting, procounces a blessing, and on his roturn he throws a piece of the flish of the deer into the fire, by way of sacrifice, uttering a benediction as he does so. The most remarkable analogy between the rites of the Jaws and the American Indians is that both forbear tasting the blood of killed acimale, that they . bbcr pork, and eat no fish that is destitute of visible scales. The Indians also look on many animals as unclean, the same as the Jews do. Hrr Reventlow quotes pumercus other points to which the customs of both races chincide. For instance, women found to commit adultery were liable to be stoned to death in eight of all among (arciert Jewe, and a similar ou "om presails among the Indians of the Orince) R ver, in the West Indies. It will surprise many in Virginia who have deemed that the State held the monopoly of the boasted aboriginal descent from the Princess Pershontas to learn that her son, Thomis Roifs, left a daughter, Hannah, in England, who married, and that her descendants are quite cumerous in the bonored names of Leigh and Spencer. A BOMBSHELL TO BE EXPLODED .- On tomorrow (Saturday) morning we will commence to close out all our remaining stock of Carpets. Oil Cloths, Rugs, &c., at figures much below tneir general cost and value, in order to make a change in this department. Call and examine our prices; it will pay you well.
